

Frank Beard - 1989

Frank Beard compiled an impressive list of playing accomplishments over a remarkable career. Among his victories were successive Kentucky State Amateur Championships in 1961 and 1962, and the Kentucky Open Championship in 1964. He went on to an outstanding career as touring professional, and in his first nine seasons on tour, won nine times. He was the Tour's leading money winner in 1969, and represented the United States on the Ryder Cup Team in 1969 and 1971.