

Dr. Paul Bryan Hall – 1996

Dr. Hall was a lifelong resident of Paintsville, Kentucky and practiced medicine in his hometown for over fifty years. He was an instrumental force behind the construction of the Paintsville Golf Course in 1929, and for many years was a great friend and benefactor to junior golfers in Eastern Kentucky. He served as President of the Kentucky Golf Association from 1955-1956.