

Jodie Mudd – 1999

Jodie Mudd compiled one of the most distinguished playing records in Kentucky's golf history, including back-to-back Kentucky Open and Kentucky Amateur Championships in 1979 and 1980, a feat which has not been equaled before or since. He captured U.S. Public Links Championship titles in 1980 and 1981, was a member of the 1982 United States Walker Cup Team, and was a three-time All-American at Georgia Southern University. He turned professional in 1982 and won four tournaments and more than $2.5 million the next ten years. His finest season was in 1990 when he finished fifth on the PGA Tour money list.
