

William (Bill) Musselman – 1996

Bill Musselman compiled an impressive competitive amateur golf record, and from 1968 through 1978, dominated amateur golf in Kentucky with five Kentucky State Amateur Championships (1968, 1970, 1971, 1972 and 1978). He also captured the Colorado State Amateur Championship in 1968 while attending the University of Colorado, where he played alongside PGA Tour legend Hale Irwin. In addition to his playing accomplishments, he served as a member of the Board of Directors for the Kentucky Golf Association.
