

Thomas (Tom) Musselman, Sr. - 2005

Tom Musselman, Sr. earned the reputation as a tireless promoter of golf, particularly to children. He was instrumental in the formation of the KGA-PGA, Inc. in 1978, a joint operating and management venture between the Kentucky Golf Association and the Kentucky PGA. This business model now serves as the standard for cooperative business among golf organizations nationwide. He was also instrumental in the formation of the Kentucky Junior Golf Foundation. As a player, he distinguished himself as a member of the St. Xavier High School golf team and University of Louisville golf team, and is a member of both the St. Xavier High School Athletic Hall of Fame and the University of Louisville Athletic Hall of Fame.
